

Notice of the GVIDO cloud service

"My Library" termination

Thank you for using the GVIDO cloud service "My Library". As previously announced, the GVIDO cloud service "My Library" will be terminated on March 31, 2024.

After March 31, 2024, you will not be able to access "My Library". And you will not be able to restore your data. Please download the data saved in "My Library" to your PC. It may take some time to download the data. Please feel free to download it.

Even after the "My Library" service ends, data can be transferred by connecting the PC and GVIDO.

*For information on how to download "My Library" data and how to transfer data from your PC to GVIDO, please see here.

Customers who have purchased additional storage in "My Library" will be able to withdraw until February 28th and use it as before until March 31st.

If you have any questions, please contact us from the support section below.

(The support section will terminate at the end of March 2024)
